SPRING LECTURE SERIES

April 2011

Spring is just around the corner and so too is our Spring Lecture series. The 2011 line-up continues our celebration of Captain Pabst's 175th Birthday with historian John Eastberg's engaging discussions of, what else, the Captain.

BEER BARONS

Delve into the private world of Milwaukee's beer barons. Exciting never before see photographs of the barons at work and at play. Discover the history of Milwaukee's most famous commodity and those who made it great: Pabst, Schlitz, Miller, Blatz, and Uihlein. Trace the rise of Milwaukee's breweries from their modest beginnings to their meteoric rise as one of America's great industries until their collapse at prohibition in 1919. John brings these barons of empire out of the past with photos and charming anecdotes.

GRAND AVENUE MANSIONS

A chance for you to experience our most requested lecture for yourself. Grand Avenue -- the very name signifies a time of Victorian elegance and extravagance. Now known as Wisconsin Avenue, this main thoroughfare was once a beautiful boulevard lined with arching elms and over fifty mansions of Milwaukee's elite between 1870-1900. This unique and fascinating lecture is John's signature topic and can be found nowhere else.

Join us to learn more about this amazing person and his home. Lectures will begin at 6:30pm sharp until 8:00pm. Limited space available. Members $15 per lecture and non-members $20 per lecture. Purchase tickets online or by calling Dawn at 414-931-0808
